A SON TO ME

July 18 — 8th Sunday after Pentecost

Sermon Title: "A Son to Me"

Scripture: 2 Samuel 7:1-14a

The Cynic always asks, "Can any person DO something without any self-interest as motivation?" Selfishness is a dominant force in nature; a natural consequence of the "survival of the fittest" undertone of our lives. So, is there any such thing as a truly selfless act? How should we understand human acts that appear to be selfless? David wants to build God a HOUSE. David lives in a mansion while "God's House" is nothing more than a tent. God says NO! Why? Does David have ulterior motives? Does God need a house? Should we not build churches and call them God's house? Come, let us reason together this Sunday.

Prayer Ministry

While we have no one to lead the Prayer Ministry, all prayer requests should be sent to office@bascombumc.org. If you would like to be on the list to receive an email when prayer requests are received, send your email address to office@bascombumc.org. Please note that Tammy works part time and does not check email on the weekend, so prayer requests may not be sent out immediately.

Super Seniors will resume on August 18 (3rd Wednesday), 11:00-1:00, in the Fellowship Hall. Sonny Morris will entertain. Bring your own bag lunch and drink.

Bascomb Softball

Did you know that Bascomb UMC has a softball team? We play on Thursday nights at Hobgood Park. Anyone who would be interested in joining the Bascomb softball team please contact Ryan Kasper at kasperryan@gmail.com or 630.956.2996. The next season starts August 9th and runs for about 10 weeks. I would like to have an idea of interest no later than July 15th.
