FEED MY SHEEP

John 21: 15-19

May 15 — 5th Sunday of Easter
Sermon Title: “Feed My Sheep”
Scripture: John 21:15-19

Jesus says, Peter, “Feed my lambs” — “Tend my sheep.” — “Feed my sheep.” Take care of each other. Our love for Jesus must translate into expressions for those around us. Let them see it and feel it and experience it through us. Feed the lambs and tend the sheep; to do that WE must be fed by Christ himself. We have been given so much from God — so now feed little lambs and take care of the needs of people just as God has always taken care of us. Rather than answering Jesus with, “You know that I love you” — try listing some of the ways you show that love! Maybe today is the day to start thinking about it. Let Peter’s story encourage you to take a love inventory today.

Men’s breakfast May 15 at 7:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. All men are invited.
