MARK 1:21-28

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS

January 28, 2024

"Change Versus Transformation" Mark 1: 21-28

This coming Sunday, we will be starting an off and on series of sermons from the Gospel of Mark. This Gospel is unique in several ways. It is the oldest of the four Gospels and it is the shortest of the four Gospels. Mark, along with the Gospel of Luke, were written to the Gentiles trying to get them to believe in that Jesus was the son of the One and only God of this universe.

In the reading for my sermon Sunday, Jesus offered a teaching to those in the synagogue. We're told that the people were amazed at his teaching. A short while later, Jesus encountered a man who was filled with an "impure spirit." The "spirit" called Jesus out by name asking him if Jesus was going to destroy him. Jesus then casted the spirit out of the man and we are told once again that the crowd was amazed at what Jesus had done both times.

As I was thinking about this week's sermon, it had me wondering what would it take for our world to be "amazed" by the believers and followers of Jesus. Then again, maybe they're amazed by some of the simple things in life that we do and can do for others.

All of this got me to thinking about what Bascomb could do in our community that might "amaze" them in such a way that would consider coming to our church. And once they have gotten here, that those same people would be amazed by the way we love and serve like Jesus had taught his disciples. And that through our examples, the Holy Spirit would move those people to become a part of the Bascomb family.

Wouldn't that be amazing?
