May 12, 2024—Mother's Day

Acts 1: 15-17, 21-26 "Lots to Choose From"

How do you make a major decision in your life? Do you do research on what you should do? Do you ask people on Facebook on which decision you should make? Maybe you ask a relative on what to do? Or maybe, you decide to wait a day or two and see if something else comes along to help you decide.

Several scientific sources I checked said the average human being makes upwards of 35,000 decisions a day. From your first decision to decide whether or not you need to get out of bed all throughout the day before finally deciding how much TV you're going to watch before heading off to bed. Again, scientists believe that you may have made some 35,000 decisions that very day.

In our Scripture reading for Sunday, we are going to be looking at a passage where a very important decision was made. It was decided that the apostles needed to elect a 12th apostle to replace Judas Iscariot who had died. The qualifications for that "new apostle" were that it was to be someone who was with the apostle from John's baptism of Jesus all the way to Jesus' ascension back up to heaven plus they were to be a witness of Jesus' resurrection.

Two men evidently fit those qualifications and were nominated, Barsabbas and Matthias. The apostles then prayed, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen to take over this apostolic ministry." The apostles then casted lots between the two men and Matthias was chosen.

What are some of the qualifications we have to meet in order to be a part of the ministry of Jesus Christ? We don't meet the requirements that the apostles used for the two men in our reading. But remember what the apostles had prayed to start with about how God knew everyone's heart.

God does know each and everyone's heart. What does your heart show God? What does our church's heart show God? Maybe the answers to those questions are easier for all to see when we lead with our hearts instead of the rest of us.
