“Be a Blessing”

The season of graduation is upon us. We see ones who we helped raise, take the next step in their journey. The hard part is, that many have to move on without us. Highschool to College, College to the working world are big steps in a persons life. I am sure that when Jesus ascended to heaven his disciples asked the question “What will we do without you?” This Sunday, I look forward to exploring this question but in a positive light. In the next step we are called to take on our own, who will we be in our journey of becoming the blessing this world needs?
